This Standard Work on the Chinese Language, constructed on the basis of Kangxi's Imperial Dictionary, contains all Chinese characters in practical use, and while alphabetically arranged according to the sounds of the oldest dialect of China, the Cantonese, it gives also the Mandarin pronunciation of all characters explained in the book, so that its usefulness is by no means confined to the Cantonese Dialect, but the work is a practically complete Thesaurus of the whole Written Language of China, ancient and modern, as used all over the Empire, whilst its introductory chapters serve the purposes of a philological guide to the student.
A Supplement, arranged for being bound

THE CHINESE MAIL.

THIS paper is now issued every day.
The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum delivered in Hongkong, or Ten Dollars Forty Cents including postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued, purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the guarantors and securities necessary to place it on a business and legal footing.

The projector, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan, from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese, consider themselves justified in guaranteeing a large and ever-increasing circulation. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of them.

The field open to a paper of this description—conducted by native efforts, but representative of anti-obstructive intellectual progress. It is on the one hand commanded Chinese belief and interest, while on the other it deserves every aid which can be given to it by foreigners.
Like English journals it contains Editorials, with Local, Shipping, and Commercial News and advertisements.

Subscription orders for the above may be sent to
GEO. MURRAY BAIN,
China Mail Office.

Mr. Andrew Wind,
News Agent, &c., 21, PARK ROW, NEW YORK, is authorized to receive Subscriptions, Advertisements, &c., for the China Mail, Overland China Mail, and China Review.

THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY,
TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of "Notes and Queries on China and Japan," has reached its Thirteenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the "Far East" and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new department has been taken, and the Review now describes papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a perfect and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give criticisms embodying sketches of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to "Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office."

The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondents' column also affords farther and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial, Chinese, and Hongkong Societies, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chambers, Edel, Bretschneider, Hirth, and Hance, Professor Legge, and Messrs. Ballou, Hance, Sunt, Philip, Macleay, Green, Jamieson, Faber, Kopsch, Packard, Playfair, Giles, and Pictou, all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at $5.50 per annum, postage included—payable in advance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, "Manager, China Mail Office."

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.
"All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and entertaining Review."—Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.).
"The China Review is a most valuable excellent table of contents."—Celestial Empire.

"The publication always contains subjects of interest to scholars in the Far East, and the present issue will find favourably in no unadvantageous comparison, with preceding numbers."—Celestial Empire.

"This number contains several articles of interest and value."—North-China Herald.

"The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterizes that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. More than one student of Chinese history, philology, and literature will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Friesche, on 'The Amoy of Pre-Christianity (Religion and Myth)' of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880. "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting and valuable details much of it is new and interesting. The Notes of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting."—North-China Daily News.

A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China, and the Chinese world do well to patronize."—Chungking Review.

"The November-December number of the China Review contains a variety than usual, but the few articles are of very interesting character. The opening paper by Mr. Hance on 'Giles on the Chinese Language' is a most valuable contribution to the study of Chinese 'travaux de question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. . . . Mr. E. H.
Parker's 'Short Journeys in Szechuen' are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels, in the interior of China, is given. Mr. F. H. Ballou contributes a paper of some length entitled 'The Emperor Cheng, founder of the Chinese Empire,' which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history.

A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, covering a wide range of subjects, are given. 'On Chinese Guns and Jaws' might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number."—H.K. Daily Press.

Truener's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:— "The present publication, judged by its number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of accuracy that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and it is to be hoped that the Review may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionaries, those among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors."

Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese post-steamship of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. G. Bower, is not only historically valuable, but is distinguished by the literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to see that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance.
